"I first met Sully last century when I had moved to Lewiston from Moscow to start work as the CFO of the Tribune. Butch got me involved in the chamber of commerce and in the downtown Lewiston revitalization project. Sully seemed to be in the middle of a lot of L/C Valley business history. Then this amazing letter arrived with newspaper clippings and photocopies of really bad jokes and cartoons. Similar letters arrived when my name appeared in the paper, or Sully heard something. After some time, I began doing the same thing for my friends - following Sully's inspiration. Thanks Sully, you are my friend forever. God be with you in your new life with GOD. Ray Rosch"
